

Spirited Away - Chapter 1

Chihiro was 10 years old. She was sad because her family were moving to a new house. But on the way they got lost and stopped the car at a deserted house with a spooky statue.

Through the house was a deserted town. Mum and Dad found lots of food to eat in a deserted restaurant. But Chihiro carried on walking and found a deserted bathhouse.

Suddenly a young man shouted "Leave!"

"Get across the river before it gets dark... ! "

But it was too late....

The sun set and the street lanterns came on.
It was dark!

Chihiro ran back but Mum and Dad had been magically changed into pigs ! ! !

Black Ghosts and spirits started to appear all over the deserted town.

Was it all just a bad dream ?

Spirited Away - Chapter 2

Chihiro was trapped by a strange lake.
She watched as a glowing steam boat docked and lots of spirits floated off.

She was scared - she was becoming see through and couldn't touch anything!
The man from earlier came back and said "I'm Haku ! Don't be afraid ."

" Eat some food
and you won't disappear " he said.
Chihiro ate a red
berry. She started to feel better.

Suddenly Haku saw a scary witch bird flying above them in the sky. It was staring at Chihiro. Chihiro couldn't move!

Haku whispered "Sssh"..... "Don't move". He then said a magic spell to release Chihiro and they ran away and over the bridge.

Chihiro held her breathe but a spirit frog talked to Haku and smelt her "Human!" he shouted.

Haku and Chihiro hid through a little door.

Haku said " To survive here you must get a job or the Witch will change you into an animal".

"You must go to the boiler room".

"Ask Kamaji for a job"

Chihiro was confused and asked Haku "How do you know my name?"

Haku replied " I have known you since you were little..."

Chihiro ran down the stairs to the boiler room. She needed to try and find whoever Kamaji was!
